Allison represents debtors, financial guarantors, indenture trustees, creditors and shareholders in chapter 11 cases and out-of-court restructurings. Allison works with clients in a variety of industries including automotive, energy, financial services, healthcare, insurance, manufacturing, retail, and telecommunications. She regularly advises boards of directors in distressed situations and provides counsel to parties to credit default swap transactions.

Allison previously served as counsel at two large international law firms, and advised on numerous bankruptcy and restructuring matters. Her practice covered all aspects of domestic and international business reorganizations and debt restructurings, as well as crisis management, corporate governance and the acquisition and sale of assets and troubled companies in chapter 11.
