

Jennifer M. Halliday

CHIEF HUMAN RESOURCES OFFICER

As the Chief Human Resources Officer, Jennifer empowers Arent Fox employees to succeed by fostering an inspiring company culture.

Education

The George Washington University MA
American University BS

Offices

Washington, DC

Phone

202.857.6046

Email

jennifer.halliday@arentfox.com

As the Chief Human Resources Officer, Jennifer empowers Arent Fox employees to succeed by fostering an inspiring company culture. Jennifer's results oriented persona integrates Arent Fox's three main goals — practical, entrepreneurial, and trusted — into the work environment to continue to attract the industry's brightest minds.

Jennifer has over 20 years of experience leading, developing, and executing HR strategy in support of overall business plans, and excels in driving positive results for the organization through her quick and innovative thinking. As a member of senior leadership, she actively serves on several key committees which directly impact the strategic direction of the company. Jennifer has extensive experience and a successful track record in HR, operations, and administration at top-tier law firms.

Jennifer is responsible for HR functions nationwide including recruiting and retention, diversity and inclusion, employee relations, evaluation and learning, human resources planning, compliance, and benefits. Her role additionally includes an expanded scope of responsibility including firmwide administration and operations.

Prior to joining Arent Fox in 1999, Jennifer served in human resources roles at Jackson & Campbell, Shaw Pittman, and Hogan & Hartson.