Since joining Arent Fox, Dan has worked with clients representing a range of industries, including energy, health care, and foreign policy. He supports clients' agendas by coordinating Congressional and Executive Branch outreach. Concurrently, he aims to support the achievement of client goals through research and monitoring legislative and regulatory activity.

Dan is not a member of the legal practice.*

Previous Work

Dan previously served in the State and Capitol Hill office of Congressman Jeff Fortenberry (R-NE). He began his service as an intern in the Lincoln, NE office, and took on a role as the Congressman's scheduler and staff assistant while in DC. He was the primary point of contact in DC for constituent services and the Congressman's meetings, and also oversaw the Congressman's DC office internship program.
