Julianne is a member of Arent Fox's Corporate and Securities practice group, where she supports a diverse group of Boston office business clients in transactional and day-to-day matters. Julianne was previously an attorney at Posternak Blankstein & Lund LLP, focused on estate and gift planning, probate, and trust and estate administration. Before that, she practiced estate planning at a small law firm in Lexington, MA, where she created estate plans for middle income clients and administered estates.

During law school, Julianne served as a teaching assistant for first-year contract law courses, was a Phi Delta Member, and was a member of the Suffolk University Law Review. While on Suffolk's Law Review, Julianne served as Note Editor for three staff members and published a piece entitled "If the Shoe Fits: Sizing Up the Applicability of IvI Exclusions to the FDIC."

Life Beyond the Law

Julianne enjoys scary movies and attending country music shows.
