

Wendy Qiu

ASSOCIATE

Wendy is an Associate in the Complex Litigation group in the Los Angeles office.

Industries

Health Care

Practices

Complex Litigation

International

Asia

China

Languages

Mandarin Chinese

Education

University of Southern California Gould School of Law JD, 2018

University of Southern California BS, 2014

Offices

Los Angeles

Phone

213.443.7582

Email

wendy.qiu@arentfox.com

Wendy works with local and international clients in litigation, white collar investigation, arbitration and mediation matters. She represents clients in the banking, health care, sports, restaurant and automotive industries. In the health care space, Wendy represents hospitals, medical staffs, and major health care systems throughout California in peer review hearings and complex litigation. Wendy also handles a broad range of white collar matters, including conducting global investigations for international companies.

Previous Work

Prior to joining Arent Fox, Wendy served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Dolly M. Gee at the US District Court for the Central District of California, where she prepared drafts of proposed court rulings on a variety of motions.

She also served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Michael Linfield at the Los Angeles Superior Court.

Before attending law school, she interned at various music and media & entertainment companies, including Rhino Entertainment, NBCUniversal, Warner/Chappell Music, and the National Centre for the Performing Arts. She has researched and negotiated the approval of over 100 licenses and also drafted over 50 domestic and international licensing proposals and final contractual agreements for synchronization and sample deals.

Life Beyond the Law

Wendy is fluent in Chinese (Mandarin). In her free time, she enjoys ultimate Frisbee, swimming, playing piano, and attending music festivals.

Bar Admissions

California

Court Admissions

US District Court, Central District of California