Stefan's experience includes a range of general commercial disputes involving unfair competition and the theft and misuse of intellectual property. He helps clients resolve disputes through state and federal courts, arbitrations, and adversary proceedings in bankruptcy. In addition, he represents hospitals and medical staff in complex litigation matters in court, peer review proceedings, and administrative hearings. He counsels clients throughout the process – from drafting the initial demand letter to collecting on a final judgment.

Representative Matters:

- Obtained a Lanham Act preliminary injunction stopping an internet false advertising campaign and requiring affirmative disclosure to recipients.
- Successfully moved to dismiss a false advertising case based on alleged misrepresentations on social media.
- Defeated TRO application in a whistleblower lawsuit by a physician against a hospital, seeking reinstatement of physician from a suspension.
- Defeated TRO application in a business divorce case, seeking access to all of a dissolved company's email and social media accounts and customer relationship management software.
- Enforced an international interim arbitral award against a well-known musical recording artist's company.
- Completed numerous DMCA takedowns on social media platforms for unauthorized use of songs and photos for several companies across various industries.
- Advised "influencers" on copyright, trademark, and privacy law issues on social media platforms, as well as FTC advertising guidelines.

Previous Work

Prior to joining Arent Fox, Stefan worked at a boutique law firm specializing in plaintiff's copyright cases – primarily dealing with graphic designs. He also served as a Major Fraud Law Clerk in the Orange County District Attorney's Office, where he helped prosecute real estate fraud.
