Ralph Taylor has practiced law for nearly 40 years in the fields of complex commercial, real estate, intellectual property, and District of Columbia tax litigation. His DC tax litigation practice includes representation of hotels, nursing homes, commercial buildings, tax exempt properties, PILOT payers, and affordable housing entities in a variety of District of Columbia tax and tax-exemption matters before the DC Court of Appeals; the DC Superior Court; the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH); and the Board of Real Property Assessments and Appeals (BRPAA) (now the Real Property Tax Appeals Commission).

Ralph received his JD (Order of the Coif) from the University of Virginia School of Law and a BSE (honors in Electrical Engineering) from Princeton University. He is listed in Who's Who in the World, Who's Who in America, Who's Who in American Law, Super Lawyers, and Top Rated Lawyers in DC. He holds a Martindale-Hubbell AV® Preeminent™ 5.0 out of 5 Peer Review Rating.
