OUTFOX

By helping to connect LGBT and allied lawyers, paralegals, and alumni at Arent Fox, OutFox works to foster a stronger professional and social network within the firm. The group meets periodically for social and networking events, serves as a sounding board for issues of interest or concern to LGBT employees, works to integrate new employees, and looks for opportunities to increase the firm's visibility within the LGBT legal community.

“At Arent Fox, we view diversity as an integral part of the firm’s mission of providing first-rate legal counsel and exceptional service. Values of equality and respect are the foundation of our partnership and the building block to promoting diversity throughout the firm.”
